SUIT TO BE BROUGHT AGAINST BANK STOCKHOLDERS.

From authoritative sources it has been learned that a suit will be filed in the Bourbon Circuit Court in the next few days by State Banking Commissioner Thomas Smith, against the stockholders of the defunct George Alexander & Co. banking house to require them to pay to Buckner Woodford, Receiver for the banking house, the amount of legal liability.

On Friday last a number of the impatient depositors of the bank brought suit against the banking commissioner through Attorneys Harmon Stitt and Talbott & Whitley to require him to declare an immediate partial dividend of the funds which he has already received and is holding for the benefit of the depositors.

The plaintiffs allege that the banking commissioner has had in hand for several months a large amount of cash with which he could pay a substantial dividend to the depositors and creditors whose claims are not disputed after setting apart enough to pay expenses and a like dividend on all disputed claims.

The plaintiffs allege that because of the closing of the Alexander bank money matters are close and that it is a great inconvenience and loss to the depositors, whose claims are not in dispute, for their part of the cash on hand to be withheld from them, and the purpose of the suit is to require an immediate distribution of the cash among the depositors.

The stockholders who are contesting the assessment have resisted it upon the ground that the collapse of the bank was caused by the appearance of a large number of notes given by Mr. Alexander, which, while they purported to be the obligations of the bank, and that the bank should not be required to stand responsible for them, and that if this contention is sustained the bank will still be solvent.

The amount or money to be realized by the depositors should the suit or the banking commissioner prove successful, may not be large, as the greater part of the stock was owned by Alexander himself, and he has already assigned all of his property to the receiver of the bank.

Stockholders in banks are liable under the law for double the amount of their capital stock in the event of a bank failure, which would mean an assessment of $100 upon each share of the stock.

LATEST NEWS FROM EUROPEAN WAR ZONE.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 10, via London. —Antwerp surrendered to the Germans at 2:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 9.

The war flag was removed from the Cathedral and a white flag raised in its place at 9 a.m. The actual surrender took place five and a half hours later.

It is declared that the Cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged.

The Germans delivered one of their last furious attacks between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning. The Belgians resisted them valiantly in their trenches, and the desperate fighting resulted in very heavy losses on both sides.

During all Friday night Zeppelin airships directed the firing of the German heavy artillery, the result of which were appalling.

The German artillery forced its way across the river Nethe, in which many of the artillerymen were drowned.

The fighting has been indescribably sanguinary.

The Belgians succeeded in blowing up two, and possibly more of their enemy's batteries and heavy artillery.

Dispatches attempting to analyze the German plan of campaign with Antwerp in their hands declare that the German purpose is to sweep over Northern France with the object of taking possession of the channel ports, and thus bring the warfare nearer England.

It is said here that German newspapers are predicting the use of this Northern Belgian position as a base for operations against England.

It is assumed in London that if Germany considers it convenient to her plan of campaign she will not hesitate to utilize the neutral waters of the Scheldt; but except as an airship, and possibly a submarine base, it is contended that she can derive no advantage from this waterway.

The situation in Paris for a time seemed very threatening, but beyond the heavy rain flooding the street, no harm was done.

A large tobacco barn belonging to Willard Ward on the Carlisle & Jacktown pike, was blown down and Westfall's store, in the same vicinity, was undamaged. The lines of the Carlisle Home Telephone were blown down and three hundred telephones put out of commission. District Manager J. J. Veatch, of Paris, went to the scene, and aided by a detachment from Paris, Carlisle and Maysville construction corps, soon had the service restored to perfect working order.

INSURANCE ACT IS HELD INVALID BY JUDGE STOUT.

Circuit Judge Stout at Georgetown, Friday, held that the act of 1912 providing for the organization of co-operative assessment life insurance companies is unconstitutional.

The decision was rendered in sustaining a demurrer to the petition of the Mammoth Accident and Life Insurance Company, of Louisville. This company is endeavoring to compel the Insurance Commissioners to issue it a charter. It has $100,000 capital stock and only $10,000 has been paid.

The act under which the company is organized is held invalid as it does not set out in full the reelected parts of the old act.

CAMDEN TO SPEAK IN KENTUCKY

Senator Camden will make one or two "set" speeches in the Kentucky campaign, but will not attempt a general tour of the State, although he is a candidate for election to the short term. He admits that "spellbinding" is not his forte.

WM. J. BRYAN TO SPEAK HERE NEXT THURSDAY.

William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, Secretary of State in President Wilson's Cabinet, will make ten speeches in Kentucky next Thursday, October 15. Mr. Bryan will be aboard a special train furnished by the Democratic State Campaign Committee. He will be met at Cincinnati and his first speech will be at Falmouth, after which he will speak at Cynthia, Paris, Lexington, Mayfield, Frankfort, Christiansburg, Eminence and Lagrange, winding up at Louisville at night. Gov. Beckham and members of the Campaign Committee will accompany Mr. Bryan on the day's itinerary.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Mr. Bryan's special train is due in Paris at 11:15 Thursday morning, coming from Falmouth and Cynthia, where the distinguished speaker will deliver short addresses.

No set program has been arranged for the Secretary's reception, but he will be introduced to the crowd either by one of his party or by some local orator. Mr. Bryan will make a short speech from the rear end of the train and he will no doubt be greeted by a large crowd of admirers. Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, Democratic nominee for United States Senator, will be in the party, but will not speak here.

The State Campaign Committee evidently considers Paris and Bourbon county as being rock-ribbed in the faith as no speaking dates have so far been announced.

SMALL SIZED CYCLONE VISITS BOURBON COUNTY

A cyclone swept over the Millersburg vicinity Saturday afternoon, doing considerable damage to property, but no serious property loss of loss of life resulted.

Two tobacco barns on the Massie farm used by Ed. Wagner were unroofed, and the tobacco from one of the barns was blown to the four corners of the earth. The tobacco, which was raised by George Clay, a negro tenant, is a total loss. The roof was blown from the residence of Thomas Wagner. Mr. Wagner and family were in Millersburg at the time. Fences were blown down and trees uprooted. Telephone service was greatly hampered. The storm was followed by a terrific rain, and the streams were flooded. The storm covered a large area extending into Carlisle, where the greatest damage was done.

The situation in Paris for a time seemed very threatening, but beyond the heavy rain flooding the street, no harm was done.

A large tobacco barn belonging to Willard Ward on the Carlisle & Jacktown pike, was blown down and Westfall's store, in the same vicinity, was undamaged. The lines of the Carlisle Home Telephone were blown down and three hundred telephones put out of commission. District Manager J. J. Veatch, of Paris, went to the scene, and aided by a detachment from Paris, Carlisle and Maysville construction corps, soon had the service restored to perfect working order.

PROMPT SETTLEMENT.

Mr. A. F. Bolling, adjuster for the Old Colony Insurance Co., of Louisville, was here yesterday and settled the loss on Mr. S. G. Clay's automobile, which was burned on Saturday night, October 3. In company with the local agent, Mr. Roxie Davis, Mr. Bolling went to the Clay home yesterday and was just fifteen minutes in settling the claim in full which was $2,200. Mr. Davis is very proud of the records his old reliable company has for quick settlements. If you have insurance to buy, and want quick action, see Roxie—he believes in prompt settlements.

The Boston Braves out played and outclassed the Philadelphia Athletics in the opening game of the series Friday, winning out by a score of 7 to 1 and repeated the dose Saturday by shutting out the Phillies by the sensational score of 1 to 0. Both games were witnessed by tremendous crowds.

Boston annexed the game yesterday making it three straight, by the score of 5 to 4, twelve innings. The game was witnessed by 38,000 people. The batteries were, Bush and Schang for Philadelphia; Tyler and Gowdy for Boston.

THE TABERNACLE MEETING.

Large crowds continue to fill the big tabernacle day and night where the Ham-Ramsey evangelical forces are holding forth and the interest aroused by the meetings has permeated even the remote parts of this and adjoining counties.

The Saturday morning services were unusually interesting.

At the evening services Evangelist Ham preached a stirring sermon on a unique subject, "Knees Knocking Together," which was listened to with rapt attention by a large audience.

Sunday morning the evangelist preached at 11:00 o'clock at the union service on "The Greatest Thing in the World." At 3:00 p.m. he addressed a record-breaking crowd of male auditors on "The Sin That Kill." At the evening service at 7:15 the big auditorium was crowded to its utmost capacity with a crowd so large that it is a mystery where they came from, and how they all managed to get in the building. Evangelist Ham spoke on the subject, "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

Monday being rest day for the workers no services were held.

The attendance up to date has been in excess of 56,000, and the total collection in excess of $6,000.

Friday night has been selected as "Odd Fellows' Night" at the Tabernacle. It is expected that fully 200 members of the order will be present. Evangelist Ham will deliver a special sermon of interest to the fraternity. A big sign bearing the letters "I. O. O. F." in brilliant electric lights will be erected to show the way to the tabernacle. It is expected that the building will be filled to overflowing. To-night has been designated as "Railroad Night."

Through his attorneys, Talbott & Whitley, Mr. Chas. P. Cook, the Main Street grocer, filed suit in the Bourbon Circuit Court late Saturday afternoon against Mr. Thos. F. Brannon, who conducts a saloon a few doors below Mr. Cook's place of business, asking damages in the sum of $5,000 for alleged assault and battery.

The petition charges that "on the day of —, 1914, the defendant, T. F. Brannon, wantonly and maliciously assaulted, beat and bruised the plaintiff, Cook, about the head and face with his fists and kicked him in the back with his foot after he was down, thereby injuring the plaintiff about his head and back, that by reason of his said injuries he has suffered great pain and mental anguish to the plaintiff's damage in the sum of $5,000."

The suit is the result of an assault made by Mr. Brannon upon Mr. Cook last spring, after Mr. Cook had testified before the grand jury about an alleged nuisance which the grand jury was investigating. After the assault Judge Stout issued a rule against Mr. Brannon for contempt of court in assaulting a witness, and on a trial of this rule before a jury, Mr. Brannon was fined $1,000 and given a jail sentence of six months. He took an appeal from this verdict to the Court of Appeals, and the case is now pending a hearing.

EARLY WAR NEWS.

PIERCE FIGHTING NEAR ANTWERP.

LONDON, October 9.—An official German dispatch, received here from Berlin by wireless, says:

"It is reported from Dutch sources that fierce fighting occurred yesterday in the Nethe district (province of Antwerp)."

"The Germans approached in a northerly direction from forts of Waver and Waelhem and commenced a bombardment of Antwerp from these positions."

"Early in the morning the shrapnel shells already had caused great damage in many places, showing that the investing force is close to the city."

"The whole of the Belgian field army has been concentrated in the district between Antwerp, Lierre (nine miles to the southeast of the city) and the River Scheldt, in which area fighting is proceeding."

"More than 100,000 inhabitants of Antwerp have fled to Holland in terror, and the remainder of the non-combatants have burrowed in their cellars, where shrapnel, shell and bombs from the air are making life a nightmare."

"Before dawn to-day six Zeppelins had flown over the city, dropping bombs, several of which struck the Palais de Justice, damaging it severely. To-day a Zeppelin flying over the fortifications dropped a bomb in an oil tank at Hoboken, setting it afire. The other near-by tanks were drained hastily to prevent the spread of the flames."

BIG GUNS AGAINST MEN.

LONDON, October 9.—"A grave view of the situation is taken by the authorities," writes the Antwerp correspondent of the Daily News. "The great guns have told the tale."

"The fighting around Antwerp has been a battle of Krupp's against men. Every day and night the fighting has continued with deadly effect against the forts, while the shrapnel and shell have made many of the trenches untenable."

"As fast as the Belgians were compelled to withdraw from a position the Germans have moved up and occupied it. The Belgians are frequently fought bravely and stubbornly with infantry and frequently they repulsed the Germans, but these repulses always meant a renewal of the artillery attacks by the Germans with the eventual retirement of the Belgians."

"In their present position the Germans, even with their second largest guns, are able to reach the city."

SIGNPOSTS OF THE DESERT

Curious Little Piles of Stone Which All Understand Lead to Water.

In traveling over the plains of western Texas I have now and then come on two little isolated heaps of rock that at first glance seemed not at all remarkable. After a time I noticed that one heap was generally about three feet high and the other about a foot lower. The two were always within a few feet of each other and usually on an elevation or plateau that had a view of the country for five miles or more.

The rocks were roughly heaped together, as if left by children at play. I sometimes wondered if they could be the ruins of an ancient stone building; but that was improbable, for there was scarcely another stone in sight.

Years later I learned the actual significance of these rock heaps from an old Indian whose mind was stored with all the legends and customs and deeds of his people. According to him, when the Great Spirit lapped up the mighty rivers of the plains he left springs and water basins here and there for the antelope and the Indian. These the antelope easily found by scent, but the Indian had to search long and anxiously for them. Once found, they were seldom lost—thanks to these rude rock heaps.

I watched the old fellow crunch down behind the taller heap, sight over the low one, and mark the farthest object in a straight line, which in this case was a clump of bushes on the horizon. We rode toward these bushes and found—not water, as I had expected, but two other heaps of rocks. Sighting as before, and taking a rock-faced cliff toward the southwest as a goal, we rode two miles farther, and there, trickling out from beneath the cliff's rocky brow, was a spring of fresh, clear water.

The old Indian said that whenever a band of Indians came upon a new spring they built these rock heaps along their trail; since then I have followed some half-dozen of these rude signposts and found them to lead either to water or to places that showed traces of a former water course.—Youth's Companion.

For Toothache.

Toothache is essentially an inflammatory condition, and in 99 per cent of the cases there is a cavity in the tooth. In those cases where there is a cavity, but no nerve exposure, the treatment is simple—apply a sedative and exclude the secretions of the mouth from the cavity; prompt relief will follow, and then advise the patient to visit a competent dentist, says a dentist.

A very effective agent, and one always at hand, is the oil of cloves. It should be applied by saturating cotton with the remedy and introducing it into the cavity with a toothpick or other pointed instrument; that being done, the secretions are kept out by filling the cavity with a little beeswax, a household remedy always at hand.

The wax can be applied by warming over a lamp on the point of a knife and forcing into the cavity. The wax filling serves not only the purpose of keeping the secretions of the mouth out, but prevents thermal changes from affecting the nerve when hot and cold substances are taken into the mouth.

Cure for Snake Bite.

Many are the curious methods adopted for curing snake bites, but surely none can be more so than a way of which our Bhavnagar correspondent informs us. Two natives in a village near that station were, he says, brought back to life after being bitten by a cobra.

The victims were seated on the ground and then held, while from a height of 16 feet gallons and gallons of hot water were poured on their heads. Presently, according to the correspondent, the victims "took a new lease of life," and are now as well as though they had never been in the jaws of death.

The explanation to this "cure" probably is that the snake, as often happens, bit its victims, but injected no poison into them. Thus the men were merely frightened, and continued to be frightened until the pain caused by the douche of hot water gave them something else to think about.—Civil and Military Gazette.

Fallers Called Mental Defectives.

According to a Brooklyn physician most accidents, as well as divorces and crimes, are in reality due to defective mentality. When a person gets caught in a maze of traffic and does not know whether it is better to go backward or forward, he is, according to this doctor, a target for everything coming his way.

This indecision or lack of judgment leads to frequent accidents with the same individual. Of 112 persons who were questioned in four semi-private hospitals 46 had had previous accidents and 32 more than one such accident. Out of about 50,000 examinations of defectives there was scarcely a case that did not show many scars. Inquiry among eight automobile owners showed that the opinion commonly held of reckless chauffeurs among their fellows was that the reckless ones were not quite normal, or, as they phrased it, were "crazy."

SQUIRRELS SKIP ON WIRE

Tiny Animals Perform Daring Aerial Feats to Outwit Nut Thieves of Philadelphia.

Philadelphia.—There has been a crowd of Kensingtonians in Norris square, Diamond and Hancock streets, every day since it was discovered that the squirrels the Kensington Board of Trade put into the open space several years ago will perform incredible climbing feats for a nut.

The discovery was made by a young man who spends much of his time studying zoology, botany, and such things. He threw a nut to a squirrel in the square, expecting to see it do the usual stunt, which is to carry it up a tree and hide it. Instead the little animal skipped across the lawns and ascended a telegraph pole with lightning speed.

While the naturalist looked on amazed, the busy little creature, holding the prized nut firmly, skipped lightly along the insulated wiring to Hancock street. It then hopped to another wire which leads to the roof of St. Boniface's Catholic church. Running along the wire with the grace of the daintiest tight-rope walker, the little animal deposited the nut in a crevice near the roof of the edifice, and then returned to the square by the same route.

The answer is that the squirrels do not trust their old hiding places in the park. They have evidently been robbed of some food they had worked laboriously for days to store up. At least, that is the way the dopesters in the daily audience have it figured out. It would be a nutty squirrel, they think, that would risk its life and dignity in such a manner just for a nut.

The performances are held daily. All that is necessary is to give one of the little animals a nut, and the show begins.

Mrs. G. N. Gravett, 44 N. First Ave., Winchester, Ky., says: "For years I have known about Doan's Kidney Pills and I consider them the best of all kidney pills, and I consider them the best of all kidney remedies. I had headaches and backache and was restless at night. I was all tired out in the morning and sometimes was nervous. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills I used them. They made me strong and well."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Gravett had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done more for me than I ever dared hope for," writes Mrs. Esther Mae Baker, Spencerport, N. Y. "I used several bottles of these tablets a few months ago. IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Stomach Misery, Indigestion in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, indigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of "Pape's Diapepsin," then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

GREAT PREPARATIONS MADE.

Louisville.—It has been eleven years since Lexington had the honor of entertaining this convention and these years have formed a period of unusual development in the Sunday-school world. There have been many new Sunday-schools organized, most of the schools have grown largely in the number of people enrolled. The schools have become better organized and have added many new departments.
The Teacher Training Classes, the Organized Adult Classes, the Organized Teen Age Classes, the Home Departments and the Cradle Rolls have all developed into departments of the Sunday-schools during these years and each will have an important place on the program.

One of the interesting features of the State Convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association to be held in Lexington, Oct. 20-23, will be the roll call of counties.

TAKES OFF DAN- DRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Your Hair

Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a loth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

Before she is married she regards
"Voguer" and the Tango as the two most important things in life. But after she has a few children she talks
more about Castor Oil and Paragoric than anything else.

No use to fuss and try to wear it out. It will wear you out instead.

WHY NOT PUBLISH IT?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru, Ind., was troubled with belching, sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes: "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me.
They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well."

The old-fashioned wife who got out of the house about once every six months now has a married daughter who goes home so seldom that she forgets her address.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now you do better than take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it."

man, the News man's attention was called to a printed sign on the show window at Baldwin Bros. meat market which had evidently once read
"Home Killed Meats," but which had been changed by some mischievous person rubbing out one letter which made it read, "Home Killed Eats."
"I was in Louisville not long ago," said the business man, "and while walking down Market street I saw a sign in the window of an old building that had apparently once read 'Eat Friend's Oats.' But by altering the first letter of the last word and taking one letter out of the second word someone had made it read 'Eat Fried Cats.'"
"It reminded me of the prank played in the old City School in Paris, away back in the days when Prof.
Puckett was principal, in which he neatly turned the trick on the village cut-up, instead of being made the sufferer.

"The old school was then a sort of co-educational institution, the boys and girls being seated together. One morning Prof. Puckett had written in chalk on the blackboard a notice which read, 'Owing to an indisposition I am unable to attend to my classes this morning.' As all the old boys who attended the old school will recall Frank Terry was one of the wags and was continually in mischief.
On this particular morning Frank was one of the earliest arrivals, and when he caught sight of that notice he promptly stepped up to the board and rubbed out the letter 'e' from the word 'classes.' The notice then read
'Owing to an indisposition I am unable to attend to my lassies this morning.'"
"Prof. Puckett recovered rather unexpectedly and upon returning to his class room about an hour later happened to glance up at the blackboard and saw the sign. Stepping up to the board he took up the rubber and erased the 'l' from the word 'lassies'
in the notice, and the sign then read
'Owing to an indisposition I am unable to attend to my 'asses' this morning.'"
"There were no further alterations, and the fact that Prof. Puckett was a giant in stature, being over six feet in height, and built like a gladiator made the boys accept the situation, and let the notice read as it was."

THEATRICAL.

Columbia Theatre.

Wednesday, Oct. 14, "The Million Dollar Mystery." Episode 14—Tracked by the Secret Service—Desperate, the "Black Hundred" determine upon a bold plan to rid the Home of Mystery of Jones, Florence, and every one in it so they can carefully hunt every nook and corner for the $1,000-000. Jones discovers one of them hiding counterfeit money in the library.
Cunningly, the "Black Hundred" inform the Chief of the Secret Service.
Norton cleverly discovers the scheme;
he enlists the aid of the Secret Service. The dictaphone, the police and the ever-resourceful Norton bring about flight, pursuit and the thrilling adventure in the den of the counterfeiters.

Another picture will be shown entitled, "The Price Paid," in two parts.
A timely subject dealing with political graft and its penalty.

—Seats for "The Yellow Ticket" went on sale at the box office of the Alamo Theatre yesterday. This is the play which A. H. Woods produced at the Eltinge Theatre, New York City, where it has just concluded a run of an entire year. The story of "The Yellow Ticket" deals with the present status and treatment of the Jews in Russia. The heroine, Marya Varenka, otherwise Anna Mirrell, is a young and beautiful Jewess, who is forced to apply for "The Yellow Ticket," Russia's official license to fallen women, in order to leave the "Pale of Settlement," so that she may visit her dying father in St. Petersburg. In the Kingdom of the Czar, Jews are restricted to "life within the Pale." There are three acts in the Michael Morton play which is said to be a most powerful arraignment of Governmental prejudice.

Mr. Ellis paid $70 per acre for the farm.

TOUCHED!

John Jones, a laborer in the employ of Mr. George Doyle, on the Georgetown pike, laid away his shovel and hoe Friday and came to town to see the sights. He succeeded so well in "seeing something" that when he awoke on the cold-bosom of Mother Earth, near the Water Works pump station, Saturday morning, he had a large able bodied headache and a vacuum in his pocket in which $60 had reposed the night before.

LET'S HAVE IT!

The Washington Marine Band, the official band of the United States, which plays at all social functions and official Government receptions held at the White House, is arranging a concert tour of the United States and has written to Lexington for a date.

Here's a chance for some enterprising Parisian to pick up some coin by bringing the organization here. As is known to be a fact Paris people highly appreciate good music, and the attendance upon former occasions when such notable attractions as the Ellery Band, Sousa's Band, The Kilties, New York Marine Band, and others, of equally high class, demonstrates the fact that we are a music-loving people.

Some promoter who has the nerve, the push and the ability, can bring these attractions to Paris and be assured of financial returns and the satisfaction of having given our people something good in the music line.

TWO ALARMS FRIDAY NIGHT KEEP DEPARTMENT BUSY

Lighted troches in the hands of two workmen who were repairing an engine at the plant of the Murray & Thomas Marble and Granite Works, on South Main street, Friday night, caused a passerby to turn in an alarm from Box 33. The department responded, but found no fire.

About 2:30 a. m. Saturday morning the department was called to the home of Mrs. James Wilcox, in the Rosedale Addition, where fire of an unknown origin had burned a large hole in the kitchen floor. The fire was extinguished by Mr. Wilcox and others before the arrival of the department.

STREET FLOODED BY HEAVY FALL OF RAIN.

For a period of about thirty minutes Saturday afternoon Paris was visited by the heaviest rainfall for many months. From 3:30 to 4:00 p. m. 57 inches of rain fell, which was the heaviest precipitation this section experienced since the excessive rain of June 4. Farmers throughout the county report considerable damage to fresh plowed fields, the rain falling in sheets that washed the ground in many places. Uncut fields of late corn and sorghum were laid low by a gale of wind that prevailed, following the rain.

6—THE WORK OF THE OPERATOR

The telephone operator is trained to give quick and accurate service. That is what the public pays for and expects; it is what we are in business to furnish. It is impossible, we realize, to attain perfection. We do employ every reasonable means known to the art of telephony to approximate perfection. There are inevitable "rushes" in emergencies which even such careful provision and supervision will not care for in a perfect manner. But such emergencies are, and should be, of rare occurrence. We do give efficient service and if you will hold a stopwatch in your hand you will find that the space of time which seems like minutes to you is only a very few seconds.

During certain hours of the day the load on the switchboard, that is the number of calls, is abnormally large. These rush periods are known as "busy hours" and we take the precaution, in advance, to prepare for these rushes of business. There is never a time, except when some unusual and unexpected event happens, that an operator ever has more than she can do.

When you turn the crank a "drop" falls in front of the operator. This is the signal that a subscriber wishes her attention. If two or three "drops" fall simultaneously she answers them as rapidly as she can reach them. If there are an unusual number of calls before a particular operator the operator on each side handles some of them. So there is no possibility of any calls being neglected or overlooked.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give
"California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest after giving it because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Every girl would like to have a big church wedding if she didn't have to live with some nasty man after the exciting ceremonies were ended.

They are all white rags to a man when they are hanging on a clothes line. But to a woman they represent $1.50, $1.98, $1.19, 39 cents and 49 cents.

HOPELESS LUNG TROUBLE CURED.

Many recoveries from Lung Troubles are due to Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It strengthens the Lungs, checks the Cough and gives relief at once.—Mr. W. S. Wilkins, Gates, N. C., writes: "I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey in a case given up as hopeless and it effected a complete cure." Get a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and if your cough is dry and hacking let it trickle down the throat, you will surely get relief. Only 25c at your Druggist.

You can tell from the looks of a girl's hair that she washes it twice a week. But from the looks of her elbows—aw, go ahead and finish this one yourself.

APPLY SLOAN'S FREELY FOR THE LUMBAGO

Your attacks of Lumbago are not nearly so hopeless as they seem. You can relieve them almost instantly by a simple application of Sloan's Liniment on the back and loins. Lumbago is a form of rheumatism, and yields perfectly to Sloan's, which penetrates quickly all in through the sore, tender muscles, limbers up the back and makes it feel fine. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, stitica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

GET PORTABLE STILL

Revenue Men Seize Moonshiners' Tiny Outfit in Ozarks.

Weighing Only a Few Pounds, It Often Was Carried From Place to Place by One Man and Hidden in Woods.

Springfield, Mo.—"Old Tuxedo," the wandering still of the Ozark country moonshiners, claimed by nobody but zealously guarded by many friends along the Big Creek valley in Texas county, has been captured by James Case, deputy internal revenue collector, and arrived in perfect condition in Springfield.

The still, which ultimately will be sold at auction, was located by Case after a quiet search of several days, hidden under a bushy fence row near Hartshorn, Texas county.

For several years the officers have been trying to locate the old still. It was familiarly known to the residents of Texas county, in the little region where the moonshiners had operated, but all were equally ignorant of its whereabouts. The reason for their ignorance, the revenue officers learned, was that "Old Tuxedo" remained but a short time in one place.

The arrest several months ago of Pete Barton, indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of making whisky without a license, caused a halt in the moonshining business in the vicinity of Big Creek and gave the officers a hint that Barton might have been the latest owner of "Old Tuxedo." A fermenter had been found in Barton's place by the revenue officers, but he had stoutly maintained that he knew nothing of the whereabouts of the noted still.

Deputy Collector Case camped in the vicinity of Big Creek for a few days and let it be generally known that he was there to stay until "Old Tuxedo" was found. Men who had been engaged in the making or selling of whisky showed signs of fear and offered to aid the government officer to find the plant.

After numerous conferences the still's location was made known to the officer, and following the directions of his informers, Collector Case soon discovered the little "boozie" maker in a fence corner. It was covered with shrubbery, but was not damaged.

The old still is believed to be the most perfect specimen of the moonshiners' art that had escaped the revenue officers. Without a flaw, excepting one place where the "worm" has been repaired, the still, cap and worm are in perfect condition and could be put to use immediately by an experienced moonshiner.

The famous little still weighs only 55 pounds. It consists of a copper boiler about as large as an ordinary wash tub. On top rests the copper cap, through which the steam of the whisky or brandy mash passes into the condensing worm before it is changed into "corn juice" or apple brandy.

The manufacture of whisky or brandy is not difficult and is inexpensive. The completed product can be sold for 30 cents a gallon. It may be made from sour meal, apple or peach vinegar.

The still has handles on each side of the copper boiler and might easily be moved from place to place by one man. It is not more than three feet high, and could be concealed entirely in a patch of weeds.

ONCE RICH MAN NOW BEGGAR

His Faro Bank Roll in the Klondike Was $200,000 in 1898—Beggard Dime.

San Francisco.—James Parkhill, one time owner of a $200,000 bank roll of the Bank Exchange faro bank, Deadwood, S. D., who has the reputation of making the largest wager on the turn of a single card ever risked in the Klondike region, stood before Judge Deasy, tattered, unshaven and broke, charged with vagrancy.

It was in '98 that Parkhill sat in a poker game with "Red" Macintosh, Bill Richards and Frank Hull, all big money men in the Klondike, where the ceiling was the limit. They were playing in the Pack Train saloon, and Parkhill, who stood $68,000 ahead of the game, bantered Hull for a $50,000 wager on the turn of the last card.

Hull was game. The stakes were put up. Hull, who had the first turn, turned a queen, and Parkhill lost his $50,000 on a seven spot. He told the court that he had toured the world since then, but his life had been a game of up and down, with about seven downs to one up.

His last stand was in Mexico. He had accumulated a bank roll there, but fighting got too close to be interesting, his money was taken from him, and he got across the line with nothing but his life.

He was begging for a dime to take him across the ferry when arrested. When freed by Judge Deasy he said he would get out of town as quickly as he could.

Motor Attack Routed Bull.

Crafton, Pa.—When he saw a bull chasing Miss Bessie Kauffman, Charles Boyer, a motorcyclist of this place, drove his machine straight at the animal. It was struck in the side and Boyer was thrown into the gutter. Frightened at the unexpected attack the bull fled to a pasture and declined to renew the attack.

THE "PRUDENT MAN" BEGAN EARLY TO BANK HIS MONEY—NOW HE ENJOYS IT.

A New York theatrical man with an income of $25,000 a year went to Wall Street with $20,000 and tripped it. His head was turned—in a few months theatres closed—income ceased and Wall Street had finished his spare change. The EXTRAVAGANCE his family had been used to soon drove him to the extremity of mortgaging property and sacrificing pet securities. Today he is BROKE.

AT THE SHRINE OF A POET

Provençal Women of France Have
New Grace Because Mistral
Sung of Them.

Paris.—Frederic Mistral, who died on March 24, was of course still alive
at the time of our visit to Arles, Albert Bigelow Paine writes in the Century. He was the light of modern Provence. We began to realize something of this when we saw the photographs and various editions of his poems in the windows of Marseilles and Aix, and handbills announcing the celebration, at St. Remy, of the fiftieth anniversary of Gounod's score of Mistral's great poem, "Mireille."

But we did not at all realize the fullness of the Provençal reverence for "the master," as they call him, until we reached Arles. To all Provence Mistral is a god, an Apollo, the "central sun from which other Provençal singers are as diverging rays." Whatever Mistral has touched is glorified.
Provençal women walk with a new grace because Mistral has sung of them. Green slopes and mossy ruins are viewed through the light of Mistral's song. A Mistral anniversary is celebrated like a Declaration of Independence or a Louisiana purchase.
They have even named a wind after him. Or perhaps he was named after the wind. Which ever way it was, the wind has taken second place, and the people smile tenderly now, remembering the master, when his name is mentioned.

He loved Provence. When he was awarded the Nobel prize, he forgot that he might spend it on himself, and bought and restored an old palace, converting it into a museum for Arles.
Then he devoted his time and energies to collecting Provençal relics and today with its treasures and associations, the place has become a shrine.
Provence has produced other noted men, among them Alphonse Daudet, who was born just over at Nîmes, and celebrated the town of Tarascon with his "Tartarin." But Daudet went to Paris, which was perhaps a sin. Not but that Provence is proud of Daudet
—he, too, has a statue at Nîmes—but Provence worships Mistral.

SET HER CAP FOR HUSBAND

Factory Girl Wrote Her Name Under Band and Weds Rich Man in State of Oregon.

Sunbury, Pa.—To become the bride of a man she never saw, Miss Mary McCormick, eighteen years old, took a 2,000-mile trip to Portland, Ore., where she has wed John O'Donnell, a well-to-do apple grower.

More than a year ago the young woman, then employed in a Northumberland cap factory, placed her name and address under the band of a cap.
O'Donnell got it, and wrote her a letter. She did not answer it.

Persistent wooer that he was, he sent his picture next time, and Miss McCormick took up the correspondence, which resulted in a proposal, with Uncle Sam as Cupid's messenger.

favor among stout and medium women be-

strength—they are the strongest corsets made.

No matter how clever the design in producing perfect

value of such a corset is im-strength to hold its original shape.

Rengo Belt corsets are all that can be desired in style

possess more of lasting

Three barns were unroofed and one of them partially blown down, most of the tobacco was badly damaged. The residence on the farm of McIntyre & Wagoner, occupied by Mr. Thomas Wagner was unroofed and his kitchen entirely demolished. A small tenant house on the same farm is a total wreck. Trees and fences were blown down, one large oak tree was lifted from the ground by the roots and hurled through the air a long distance. The storm moved north toward Carlisle, taking trees and fences in its path. It was followed by a heavy downpour of rain, which swelled all the smaller streams, doing considerable damage. The path of the storm was about one hundred yards. All the barns are being recovered.

NOTICE OF CONTEST

BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ELECTION HELD IN BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, ON MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1914, ON THE PETITION OF WILLIAM MYALL AND OTHERS, TO TAKE THE SENSE OF THE LEGAL VOTERS OF BOURBON COUNTY ON THE QUESTION WHETHER OR NOT SPIRITUOUS, VINOUS OR MALT LIQUORS SHALL BE SOLD, BARTERED OR LOANED THEREIN, THIS LAW AND PROHIBITION TO APPLY TO DRUGGISTS ALSO.

AMENDATORY AND SUPPLEMENTAL GROUNDS OF CONTEST.

Now come T. F. Brannon, James Porter, Robert Spencer, Oscar Peddicord, Ed. Slattery, John Johnson, James Cummins, Claude Ratliff, C. N. Peddicord, James Connelly, Harry Saloshin, Malachi Flannagan, Elmer Nichols, Frank Sullivan and James Curtis and amend their grounds of contest filed herein on October 3rd, 1914, and especially to the first paragraph thereof, and for amendment say that they are and each of them is a citizen and resident of the United States of America; that they and each of them is engaged in the business of selling spirituous, vinous and malt liquors by retail, in Paris, Bourbon County, Kentucky, by license, and are authorized to conduct said business in said territory by virtue of license granted to each of them by the United States of America, Commonwealth of Kentucky, and the City of Paris; and that the license of them and each of them were on September 28, 1914, and now in full force and effect.

And they come and amend the twelfth ground of contest heretofore filed, and for amendment heretofore say that in Millersburg Precinct No. 1, Richard (Pick) Wasson and J. H. Taylor were appointed by the Board of Election Commissioners of Bourbon County, Kentucky, to serve as clerk and judge respectively, of said precinct, and that both Wasson and Taylor were selected from the list of names furnished by those who favored the sale, barter and loan of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors; that both said Wasson and Taylor were late and were not at the polling place at six o'clock a. m. on the morning said election was held, and that without waiting thirty minutes, as the Statute in such cases requires, the other officers who were opposed to the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in Bourbon County, or the other persons there assembled who oppose the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in Bourbon County, or said officers and other persons who were opposed to the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, acting jointly and in concert, selected two officers to take the places of said Wasson and Taylor, from among those who opposed the sale, barter and loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in Bourbon County, and notwithstanding both said Wasson and Taylor appeared within a short time after six o'clock a. m., on said morning, and within thirty minutes after six o'clock a. m., they were not allowed to take their places as officers of said election for sometime after they came, and until more than forty votes had been cast in said precinct, and for these reasons the contestants say that the election held in Millersburg Precinct No. 1, on September 28, 1914, upon said proposition, was illegal and void, and of no effect and was not free and equal.

As a further amendment to said grounds they say that in Millersburg Precinct No. 2, on said date the election commissioners of Bourbon County, had appointed J. H. Stewart and Henry Bowling sheriff and judge respectively, from the list of names furnished by those opposed to said proposition, and had appointed John B. Vinton, judge, and V. L. Barton, clerk, from a list furnished by those favoring said proposition, and that on the morning of the election and without waiting thirty minutes after the opening of the polls at six o'clock, the persons opposing the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, selected one O. H. Collier, who was opposed to said proposition to act as clerk at said election in said precinct, wrongfully and unlawfully, and wrongfully and unlawfully compelled V. L. Barton, who had been appointed clerk to act as judge.

The contestants further say that at said precinct those favoring said proposition had selected a qualified person to act as challenger at said election and had issued to him the proper credentials as such, and that the officers of election in said precinct wrongfully and unlawfully refused admission to the election booth to said challenger, and they state that because of the matters and things herein set out that the election held in Millersburg Precinct No. 2, was not free and equal and was therefore null and void.

For further amendment to the said ground of contest they say that in Clintonville Precinct No. 2, the officers of election selected from a list of those favoring the sale, barter and loan of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, were not at the polls on the morning of said election at six o'clock a. m., and that without waiting until half past six a. m., as the law requires, that the two officers selected from a list of those opposed to the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or the persons there assembled, who opposed the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, or said officers and said persons there assembled, acting jointly and in concert, selected H. A. Power and Roy Pepper from among those who were opposed to the sale, barter or loan of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, and that because of this, said election in Clintonville Precinct No. 2 was illegal, void and of no effect and not free and equal.

The said officers of election allowed persons who were not qualified, to vote, and among others, one John Calloway, who was not of age; that they refused to allow others who were qualified to vote, and among them, Sam Smith and Herbert Michem and Sol Fields, and contestants say that in said precinct the election officers refused to count ten ballots which were voted in favor of the sale, barter and loan of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors.

The contestants for further amendment to said ground say that in North Middletown Precinct No. 1, and in various other precincts in Bourbon County, that many who were known to be in favor of the sale, barter and loan of spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, and who were tenants and raised tobacco as a means of supporting themselves and their families and those depending upon them, were told that if they did not vote dry, the "drys," their landlords, would not raise any tobacco and that they would be thrown out of employment, and that many persons were coerced to vote "No" upon said proposition, and contestants say for these reasons the election was not free and equal.

They come and amend the fourteenth ground of their contest, and for amendment say that in the various voting precincts in Bourbon County the booths were not provided with curtains as the law requires, and that the voters did not have an opportunity to vote the secret ballot, as the law requires, and that the secrecy of the ballot was thereby destroyed; that all persons who under the law were required to present certificates of registration before voting were not called upon and compelled to present their certificates of registration, and that because of this, said election in each and all of the precincts in Bourbon County, Kentucky, on September 28, 1914, was not free and equal, and was therefore null and void and of no effect.

The contestants for further amendment to a twentieth ground of contest say that the election held in Bourbon County, Kentucky, on September 28, 1914, was ordered, upon a petition of Wm. Myall and others who petitioned for the submission of the question "On the proposition of whether or not spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned in said County, and that this law and prohibition shall apply to druggists."

The contestants further say that the Bourbon County Court ordered said election "For the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said county who are qualified to vote at elections for county officers upon the proposition of whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold, bartered or loaned therein, and said law and prohibition to apply to druggists."

The contestants further say that the question submitted to the voter, on the official ballot was "Shall spirituous, vinous or malt liquors be sold, bartered or loaned in Bourbon County, Kentucky, said law and prohibition to apply to druggists."

Contestants say that the said proposition petitioned for was not authorized by law; and that the proposition upon which the election was ordered to be held was not the proposition petitioned for, and was not the proposition authorized by law to be submitted, and the proposition which was printed upon the official ballots, which were actually submitted to the voters of Bourbon County, was not the proposition authorized by law to be submitted and was not the proposition ordered by the Court to be submitted, and for these reasons, contestants say that said election was illegal, null and void.

FARMERS WARNED.

During this season of silo filling it is well for farmers and farm laborers to remember that a partly filled silo sometimes holds enough accumulated gas to suffocate a man. One man alone should not enter a partly filled silo without others in sight who can render assistance in case of asphyxiation.

TOBACCO STICKS.

Just received, a car load of sawed oak tobacco sticks. Both phones.
